Thy Kingdom Come - Ascension to Pentecost

Over the 10 days between Ascension and Pentecost we will be joining in the worldwide ecumenical prayer movement, for God's Kingdom to come on earth as it is in heaven.

Pilgrimage

Each church will lead a pilgrimage which will begin with a service of reflection for 20mins, followed by a circular walk around the parish which will take about an hour. We will close with a final blessing in church. Some churches will offer refreshments during or after the walk.

Pray for 5

Please choose 5 people you know and commit to pray for them throughout the 10 days and beyond!

Hospitality – All are welcome

Across our 5 churches we pray that, "All who are far off and all who are near will listen and wonder at the message of Jesus Christ, his love for them and his love for the world." We hope to share this love by offering a warm welcome and hospitality.

19 July Adrift

A true story of survival, as a young couple's chance encounter leads them first to love, and then on the adventure of a lifetime as they face one of the most catastrophic hurricanes in recorded history.

Starring: Shailene Woodley, Sam Claflin, Grace Palmer, Jeffrey Thomas, Elizabeth Hawthorne, Tami Ashcraft.

16 August All of Us Strangers

One night in his near-empty tower block in contemporary London, Adam (Andrew Scott) has a chance encounter with a mysterious neighbour Harry (Paul Mescal), which punctures the rhythm of his everyday life. As a relationship develops between them, Adam is preoccupied with memories of the past and finds himself drawn back to the suburban town where he grew up, and the childhood home where his parents (Claire Foy and Jamie Bell), appear to be living, just as they were on the day they died, 30 years before.

Cast: Andrew Scott, Paul Mescal, Jamie Bell

HEAVEN MEETS EARTH IN THE SOUTH WEST - LET'S PRAY TOGETHER!

Gather with us on Saturday 12th
July at 10:30am in powerful prayer for our region

Hey Michelle!

Thousands Standing, One Kingdom Advancing

From windswept cliffs to quiet harbours, golden beaches to rugged paths, people stand - arms lifted, hearts burning, voices rising like the tide. It's more than a gathering; it's a movement. Not a moment, but a holy roar echoing across the land - a line in the sand drawn by the faithful.

Once again, thousands will step onto the 630-mile South West Coast Path - not for a stroll, but for war in the spirit.

This is South West Awake. And your place on the line is waiting.

A Prayer for the South West of England

Lord God,

Thank You for the beauty and richness of the South West. We lift this region to You - its people, its places, its purpose. Let Your Spirit move from coast to coast, awakening hearts and stirring revival. Bless families, heal brokenness, guide leaders, and unite Your Church. May every town and village shine with Your love and truth. Let this land rise up in prayer and be known for Your glory.

In Jesus' name,

Amen.

Sign up today and invite your friends:

Phillack ringers will be holding their practice evening at Gwinear on the 1st Tuesday of every month 7:30 till 9 pm. If anyone is interested, please feel free to come along and have a look.

ARCHDEACONS VISITATIONS

The Archdeacons' visitations will be taking place during June, and one in July.

This year the visitations will be celebrating the rich diversity of ministry offered by lay and ordained leaders and church officers.

The services will offer opportunities for people to worship together across parish and deanery boundaries with the aim of resource people in ministry, acknowledging our shared calling, enjoying hospitality, and fulfilling some of the legal responsibilities needed to be admitted to office.

There will be seven visitations each beginning at 7pm.

Do come along and support your churchwarden as commit themselves to your parish.

Members of the safeguarding team, buildings team and International Links Committee will also be there so do say hello.

CORNWALL FAITH FORUM EXCITED FOR FUTURE

It's only been six months since members of the county's faith groups met to sign Cornwall's new Faith Covenant – and they already have many plans for the future.

Since signing in November, faith groups have been working together on plans to increase faith literacy within Cornwall Council.

SERVICE OF WELCOME FOR BISHOP DAVID

A service of welcome for the new Bishop of Truro, the Rt Revd David Williams, saw Truro Cathedral packed with people on Saturday.

Bishop David welcomed almost all who attended on the steps of the cathedral before the congregation, which included the Lord Lieutenant of Cornwall, Sir Edward Bolitho, and other dignitaries, filed inside to be greeted by Falmouth Community Gospel Choir performing a selection of songs.

Outside, Bishop David was blessed by bishops, clergy, Readers and others before they processed into the building for the start of the service. As is tradition, Bishop David remained outside and the doors were closed on him forcing him to knock for entry.

Children from local church schools played a role in the service by processing with banners, welcoming the bishop and Archdeacon of Canterbury into the building and later giving a reading.

Truro Cathedral's choir performed throughout the service which saw the new bishop anointed by the Archdeacons and others before a Cornish Bard gave a prayer in Cornish.

Bishop David then formally took up his seat in the Cathedra before being given with the stole, cope and mitre. The Dean of Truro, The Revd Simon Robinson then presented the new Bishop of Truro to the congregation.

The service concluded with Bishop David going out into High Cross and giving a blessing of the city and diocese.

If you were unable to be there on the day, Truro Cathedral live streamed the service on their YouTube channel. You can watch it here.

JOIN BISHOP DAVID TO WALK AND PRAY FOR THY KINGDOM COME THIS MONTH

During the 11 days of Thy Kingdom Come, the Rt Revd David Williams, Bishop of Truro will be walking around the diocese to pray with churches.

Bishop David will be spending his first 100 days as Bishop of Truro meeting people across the diocese and listening to their stories and views. The Thy Kingdom Come Walk and Pray will form part of that.

Starting on May 29, Bishop David will be in Stratton and West Wivelshire Deaneries visiting a number of churches in the two deaneries.

He will then move on to East and West Wivelshire on May 30, Trigg Minor and Bodmin on May 31, St Austell, Trigg Minor and Bodmin and Pydar on June 1, Powder on June 2, Carn Marth North on June 3, Pydar on June 4, Trigg Major on June 5, Kerrier on June 6, Penwith on June 7 and Carnmarth South on June 8.

Bishop David is keen to welcome anyone who wants to, to walk alongside him. For more information on where to meet and when, click here.

Thy Kingdom Come is a global ecumenical prayer movement that invites Christians around the world to pray for more people to come to know Jesus. What started in 2016 as an invitation from the Archbishops of Canterbury and York to the Church of England has grown into an international and ecumenical call to prayer.

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice,
We pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them,
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion
to guide their decisions
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.

Archbishop Stephen Cottrell
